

Avant Doctor in Training Research Scholarship Program 2021

Scholarship category guide

		Scholarship categories
Category and definition		New fellows First year post gaining specialty fellowship	Accredited trainees Trainees who are currently enrolled in an accredited specialty training program with an Australian college	Pre-vocational doctors Doctors at any level who are not enrolled in a specialty training program, regardless of their post graduate year level
Scholarships	Full-time		2 x $50,000	2 x $50,000
	Part-time		3 x $25,000	2 x $25,000
	Grants	4 x $12,500	4 x $12,500	2 x $12,500
Criteria		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Must be engaged in post fellowship research as part of a fellowship position</li> <li>Cannot be working as a private consultant</li> </ul>	Full-time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cannot be working full time in a clinical capacity</li> <li>Can do locum or shift work</li> <li>Can do teaching or tutoring</li> </ul>	Full-time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Cannot be working full time in a clinical capacity</li> <li>Can do locum or shift work</li> <li>Can do teaching or tutoring</li> </ul>
			Part-time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No work restriction</li> </ul>	Part-time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No work restriction</li> </ul>
			Grants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No work restriction</li> </ul>	Grants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No work restriction</li> </ul>
Scholarship types	Advancement of medicine	Research which contributes to developing improved health and medical practices e.g. diagnostics, drug therapies, biological processes, quality of life and health promotions
	Quality in medicine	Projects designed to improve quality in healthcare that must be site specific (i.e. ward or clinic) and relate to a domain of quality		